Claims 3-5, 17-23, 32, 33, 35-43 are allowed.

Claims 15-16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 6-13, 24-31 & 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yang (4,832,975) for reasons of record.

Applicant argues that Yang is not an interesterified fat and that interesterified fats are easier to make than the fats used in Yang. It is the examiners understanding that esterification and interesterification are equivalent reactions. Interesterification is a process limitation that does not carry any weight in product claims.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2, 6-13, 24-31 & 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yang (4,832,975) for the reasons set forth in the last office action when rejecting claims under 35 USC 102.

Yang disclosed tailored triglycerides with improved auto ignition properties. The composition contains an esterified fat having a combination of medium chain triglycerides and long chain triglycerides in the relative amounts of those set forth in the claims. The claims appear to differ from Yang in the method by which the product is made: using interesterification or using esterification. Process limitations do not carry any weight in product claims. The fact that the product may be easier to obtain by interesterification than by esterification does not alone carry any patentable weight.
